Mission Statement

The mission is to recruit, prepare, and support outstanding teachers, mental health professionals, and educational leaders who will create lifelong opportunities for the diverse communities they serve through excellence in teaching, research, and practice. This mission is centered on six key values which embody the knowledge, skills and dispositions expected of our candidates. The goals defined by individual programs are more specific subsets of these broader values.

Descriptive Statement

The School of Education, Social Work & Psychological Sciences partners with the greater Kansas City metropolitan area and is deeply committed to urban PK-12 public education. Our certification programs provide multiple pathways to the classroom, allowing traditional and non-traditional students the opportunity to become teachers. Students learn and work in classrooms serving traditionally underserved populations. Our program promotes equity through culturally and community responsive teaching.
